Why to become a member ?

Good Advice

Questions concerning international taxes, foreign rules and regulations, legislation and economics - they all arise from time to time as part of your daily business with international clients sometimes in your country and sometimes abroad. As a member of the IAPA you are never lost. Good advice is just a phone call or e-mail.

Branding

Once we heard from a member that for him the IAPA-Logo on his website and on his letterhead is just like the Mercedes Benz star. Good point. Every member may use the well-established logo and use the marketing materials prepared for IAPA.

Widespread

IAPA has recently members in most European countries and is a union of independent, small and medium-sized auditing and tax consultant offices. The offices of IAPA mainly work for small and medium-sized businesses, self-employed persons and private persons.

Knowledge exchange

Once a year IAPA organizes a General Meeting where all members have got a possibility to meet at the location of one of the members. It is not only a social event, what is very important for the international organization spread over the entire continent, but also a platform to update each other with changes in the local legal regulations that may be important for existing or prospect customers, share best marketing practices etc.

Friendship

Last but not least we really enjoy our annual meetings. IAPA is a long established intercultural network with people who love finance, facts and figures - and meeting their international friends.

How to become a member ?
